

HOPE ABANDONED FOR POPE PIUS XII

HOPE HAS BEEN abandoned for the recovery of Pope Pius XII, spiritual leader of the Catholic Church. He suffered a "grave cardio-pulmonary collapse" after the Vatican's second stroke, and Vatican Radio said this morning that "Pope Pius XII is in his death throes."

'IN DEATH THROES' ---VATICAN RADIO

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy (UPI) — Pope Pius XII suffered a second stroke and a heart attack today. Death appeared close for the 82-year-old head of the Roman Catholic Church.

Shortly before 9:30 a.m. (p.s.t.), the Vatican Radio said the Pope is in his "death throes." It called on the Catholic faithful for prayers to "recommend to God the soul of his servant at the end of his life."

DOCTORS ABANDONED hope for the Pope's survival after a cerebral attack this morning and a new crisis brought on this afternoon by a "grave cardio-pulmonary collapse."

In broadcast at 12:30 a.m. (p.s.t.), Vatican Radio said there had been no change in the Pope's condition in the past two hours, although his blood pressure had gone up to 180.

FROM INSIDE THE papal villa came word that the doctors had given the Pope blood plasma and placed him under an oxygen tent.

All the cardinals now in Rome were reported in the antechamber of the Pope's bedroom.

In New York, physicians interpreted the phrase "cardio-pulmonary collapse" to mean either that the right side of the Pope's heart had collapsed or that the collapse occurred in the artery leading from the right ventricle to the lungs.

THE POPE WAS unconscious as his life ebbed away in the bedchamber of his summer palace here.

The Pope's last words before a deep coma set in were expressed to two aides: "Pray, pray that this regretful situation for the church ends."

He apparently was fearful that his incapacity would leave the church without a leader for a long period.

AFTER A FALSE death report this morning sent newspapers with black headlines of mourning into the streets of Rome, the Vatican Radio established a running commentary on the Pope's condition in broadcasts from the papal ante-chamber in Castel Gandolfo.

The mournful voice of a priest reported some improvement of midday. Hopes returned—for a time—that the amazing stamina of the pontiff might see him through again.

But a few moments after 7 a.m. (p.s.t.), medical bulletin No. 6 confirmed the worst. The Pope had suffered grave complications following the second stroke earlier this morning.

AFTER READING the text of the medical bulletin, the Vatican Radio commentator, still reporting from a room adjoining the papal bedroom, said:

"The doctors themselves are now visibly showing their discouragement. In the antechamber there prevails an atmosphere of resigned and calm anxiety."

"In the chapel adjoining the Holy Father's room, priests and members of the Pope's family are in prayer."

"FROM THE DOOR, which is ajar, we can hear, at times, the heavy breathing of the august patient."

The somber drama in the second floor bedroom of the papal villa in the Alban Hills 15 miles south of Rome was a tragic one for the world's 450 million Roman Catholics.

Many of them joined in prayer for the Pope's recovery or the blessing of a swift and peaceful death, a fate to which the man who was born Eugenio Pacelli apparently had resigned himself in his last lucid moments.

ONE ENTERPRISING contestant, Janet Martin, of Desert Hot Springs, is conducting car washes to speed her campaign. She plans to wash cars in Hemet Friday, Desert Hot Springs on Saturday, and in Palm Springs on Sunday.

All Teen Angel candidates will gather for another meeting at the Huddle - Springs Restaurant in Palm Springs at 10 a.m., Saturday.

U.S. Warships Stop Escorts To Quemoy

State Department
Says to Resume
With Shelling

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States announced today that American warships have temporarily stopped escorting Chinese Nationalist supply vessels to Quemoy.

The State Department said, however, that if the Chinese Communists begin shelling the island again, "United States escort activity will be resumed forthwith to the extent necessary."

STATE DEPARTMENT spokesmen Lincoln White said he assumed U. S. ships stopped escorting Nationalist vessels as soon as the Communists stopped shelling under the seven-day cease-fire which they announced last Sunday.

White declined to say whether today's announcement was designed to persuade the Reds to extend the cease-fire beyond the seven-day period. But he pointed out that the "entire object" of the U. S. had been to achieve a cease-fire, and "obviously we hope this cease-fire will continue."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT said the order for escort of Chinese vessels supplying Quemoy is still in effect. But the fact that the Chinese have stopped shooting "suspends the military necessity for U. S. escort operations," it said.

The statement said there had been "full consideration" between the U. S. and Nationalist governments "as to this matter" of escorting convoys.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT made it clear that the U. S. did not stop escorting activity as a political response to the lifting of the Red barrage but because there was no longer a military necessity for such action.

Administration officials strove meanwhile to get the temporary cease-fire made permanent.

Guided Missile Battalion Lands At Formosa

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI) — An American guided missile battalion landed today to reinforce the defenses of threatened Formosa, defying repeated Communist demands for the withdrawal of U.S. troops from the area.

The 703 men of the 2nd Missile Battalion marched ashore at Keelung. Their Nike-Hercules missiles had already been unloaded, and officers estimated that the battalion would be ready for action in about a week.

The five-ton Hercules, an anti-aircraft missile, can blast the fastest known plane out of the sky. It is capable of carrying an atomic warhead powerful enough to shatter an entire bomber fleet.

Villager Finally Gets to Wear Medal of Greece

It took eight years to get it, but Col. Welcome D. Waltz today wore the ribbon and medal of Knight Commander of the Order of Phoenix.

Delayed by Congress since 1951, the medal was conferred upon Waltz, a retired Palm Springs army officer, by King Paul of Greece.

THE CITATION was awarded to Waltz for his service in Greece from 1948 to December 1951, when he trained the Greek Army to fight rebel forces.

Waltz was awarded the medal on Feb. 1, 1951, but he couldn't wear it until today.

"An American officer can't receive or wear a decoration from a foreign country without the approval of Congress," Waltz explained. "They just got around to approving it."

Burdette vs. Turley Expected in No. 7

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—Thirty-seven-year-old Warren Spahn failed in his bid for a third World Series victory today, being knocked out in the tenth inning—and the Braves failing in their bid to tie the game in their half of the last inning of the sixth game.

The New York Yankees evened the Series at three games apiece, and in the deciding game tomorrow it is expected to be Lew Burdette vs. Bob Turley.

SPAHN, COMING back after two days rest, held the Yankees to two runs in the nine innings, but was greeted by a home run by Gil McDougald in the tenth. He then got Hank Bauer and Mickey Mantle on a grounder and fly, but singles by Elston Howard and Yogi Berra sent him to the show-ers.

WHITE FORD also started with only two days rest for the Yankees, but was taken out by Manager Casey Stengel in the second after the Braves had scored their second run.

The Braves nearly tied up the game in the tenth, scoring one run on a two-out single by Hank Aaron, Johnny Logan going across the plate. Joe Adcock singled, sending Aaron to third, but Bob Turley, replacing Ryno Duren on the mound, got pinchhitter Frank Torre on a short fly to center.

Southern Senators Certain To Question New Appointee

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Potter Stewart, the new Supreme Court appointee, was certain today to undergo careful scrutiny by Southern senators before winning confirmation to the nation's top tribunal.

Sen. Spessard L. Holland (D-Fla.) indicated he and other Southern senators would take a long hard look at Stewart's record when he comes before the Senate next session.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER

Janice Moves Northward, 19 Known Dead

MIAMI (UP) — Janice, perhaps the last and certainly the most deadly big storm of a busy hurricane season, moved slowly northward over the Atlantic today. At least 19 persons were dead in her wake.

Top winds remained at 65 miles an hour and forward speed was about six miles an hour. No U.S. land areas were endangered.

EIGHTEEN HAITIANS drowned when their 45-foot sloop sank in the high waves Janice kicked up off the coast of Tortuga, Long Island, about 200 miles southeast of Nassau in the Bahamas.

Capt. Durwood Knowles, head of Nassau's air-sea rescue unit, said the lone survivor was E. Joseph Swan, who managed to swim ashore.

Earlier, a sailboat skipper, tentatively identified as William Johnson, drowned when his dinghy sank in Nassau Harbor. His body was found 12 hours later on Hog Island.

By 8 p.m. (p.s.t.), Tuesday, the hurricane had moved further toward the open sea on its north-northeasterly course. It was located at latitude 29.7 north, longitude 74.4 west, or about 400 miles east of St. Augustine, Fla.

GALE WARNINGS were up south of Cape Hatteras, N. C. to Vero Beach Fla., for northeasterly winds 20 to 35 miles an hour on the coast and up to 50 miles an hour a short distance offshore. But the weather bureau said these warnings were displayed primarily because of the "strong pressure gradient existing in the area between the high pressure to the north and the hurricane center, and not because the hurricane center is expected to approach the coast."

Chief forecaster Gordon Dunn said Janice could "well be the last storm" of this hurricane season. "There may be one more but I doubt it," he said.

Russia Order: CBS to Close Moscow Bureau

MOSCOW — (UP) — The Soviet government has ordered the Columbia Broadcasting System to close its Moscow bureau immediately in retaliation for a number of alleged anti-Soviet plays and broadcasts the network has carried.

The press department of the Foreign Ministry today summoned Paul Niven, CBS correspondent here, and read him this statement:

"Of late, CBS has presented a number of anti-Soviet broadcasts and TV programs, notably a play 'Plot to Kill Stalin' in view of this, the Soviet government considers it unnecessary for the presence in Moscow of CBS."

Alexander Popov, acting chief of the press department, told Niven that the Soviet authorities have nothing against him personally. He was given two weeks time to prepare for his departure, but will not be allowed to broadcast in the meantime.

Popov said the Soviet Union would not permit a replacement for Niven nor have anybody represent CBS on a part-time stringer basis.

CBS has had a Moscow bureau since the fall of 1955.

Area Tax Collector Takes Blame on Faubus Letter

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — (UP) — The district director of the Internal Revenue Service took full blame today for telling Gov. Orval E. Faubus it appeared he owed income taxes on $105,499.14. The trouble was that the total included rent and operating expenses on the executive mansion for two years, campaign expenses and a gift automobile that Faubus and his wife received in 1954.

"SOMEBODY GOOFED," IRS District Director Curtis R. Mathis said, explaining that anything a state furnishes by law to its chief executive is not taxable.

Faubus took the opportunity to accuse the government of using the IRS to punish him for his stand against integration and demand that President Eisenhower pay for use of the White House, if he had to pay for use of the executive mansion.

Faubus said he got a letter which said he had 10 days to protest the IRS charges.

Folsom Likes Truman for President in '60

NEW ORLEANS — (UP) — Alabama's Gov. James E. Folsom said Tuesday night former President Truman has a "mighty good chance" of becoming president again.

Folsom, who brought his five-year-old daughter Thelma here for an eye operation, said he was personally in favor of Truman as 1960 Democratic presidential candidate, and he added "lots of folks in Alabama besides me are for old Harry."

Truman has said on several occasions, however, he will not be a candidate for his party's presidential nomination.

Folsom, who says Alabama has no integration problems and no closed schools, predicted Republicans are going to be "taken to the cleaners" in the November general elections.

Officers Continue Check Into Burglary at High School

Police today are continuing their investigation into the burglary of the Palm Springs High School administration building and music classrooms, which netted the thieves some $500 in cash and loot.

Detectives Richard Harries and Richard Larson said that the thieves had gained entrance to both the buildings by forcing the locks on the doors sometime Sunday night.

Detective Steve Stevenson is in charge of the investigation.

IN THE ADMINISTRATION building, entrance was gained through the door of the teachers lounge, and three vending machines were broken open and robbed. An eight key adding machine valued at $180, was taken from the school office.

Then the burglars broke into the music classrooms and took a saxophone valued at $350. They also broke two plate glass windows in the music rooms, apparently with a piece of pipe found on the scene.

Police also reported that the burglars, believed to be juveniles, broke into assistant principal Way Reynolds' office and desk, but nothing was reported taken, and they attempted to open a janitor's closet, apparently not knowing that it contained only janitorial supplies.

At the beginning of 1958, 14,774,000 deadweight tons of merchant shipping flew under the Liberian flag — second to the United Kingdom's 23,724,000 tons and ahead of the United States' 14,203,000 tons.

The Desert Sun is an independent newspaper dedicated to truth, accuracy and impartiality in the news; to the progress of the desert region; to the support of that which it believes to be right and to the defeat of that which it believes wrong.

Newspapers Vital To Our Daily Lives

(Editor's Note: On this, the last day of National Newspaper Week, we are reprinting an Editorial which appeared in the Nov. 22, 1957 issue of The Desert Sun as a reminder of the purpose and merit of a daily newspaper, and of our responsibility to the community).

The first duty of a newspaper is to keep its readers well informed on the activities, happenings and events in its home community and outlying areas, plus major news of state, nation and the world.

People make the "news," be it good or bad. The newspapers only report it.

There are, however, several other important functions and vital services performed by newspapers.

One of these is in providing what amounts to a public market place for buyers and sellers of every form of commodities, merchandise, materials and services through its advertising columns. Most advertising, both classified and display, also contains a great deal of information of unusual value to every newspaper reader.

A good newspaper goes a step further by contributing valuable time and space to assist in worthwhile community events and campaigns, as well as in helping worthy organizations of all kinds.

And, finally, the best newspapers make full and proper use of their constitutional right to a free expression of editorial opinion as guardians of the public welfare, protectors of home and fireside, champions of truth, justice, progress, integrity and freedom.

Such newspapers merit the public trust, become molders of public opinion and perform immeasurable public service as leaders in promoting all that is good for the community and its people.

In these times when the free press has been supplanted in so many parts of the world by false propaganda organs of the political leaders in power, Americans are doubly blessed to have and enjoy a free, truthful, virile and vigorous press. Very few things are as important to all of us in our daily lives.

Coattails in the Keystone State

PHILADELPHIA, PA. — Coattails know no party. Here in Pennsylvania they belong to the big personality man, David L. Lawrence, (D), Mayor of Pittsburgh, a former State Democratic committeeman, former Secretary of the Commonwealth, reputed "boss" of the State and front-running candidate for the Governorship.

There is only one question about the State-wide ticket in Pennsylvania: Will the tug of the Lawrence coattails waft Governor George Leader to victory over Rep. Hugh Scott (R) in the senate race?

MR. LAWRENCE, as befits a boss, is all out for the whole ticket. But this is conspicuously not so with some other party chiefs who would like to see Candidate Leader liquidated and out of there for keeps. Lieut. Gov. Roy Furman, a well-established potentate from Greene County, is one of these.

It is no secret that Leader blocked Furman's ambitions to win the party's gubernatorial nomination. This is a deed that cries for vengeance. Observers are comparing Leader's position within his party to that of Senator Jim Duff (R) who couldn't win in the 1958 Eisenhower landslide because the State GOP had secretly tagged him for a one way ride to political Siberia.

SUCH ANALOGIES are very imprecise. Duff reached the Senate because he was a popular and successful governor. If Leader gets beaten, his unpopularity and unsuccess at Harrisburg could be the basic reason.

He promised to cut the payroll, but it increased by 10,000 during his incumbency. He promised to cut the sales tax, but it is up from one per cent to three. He promised to avoid a wage tax, but it became an Administration revenue-raiser which was passed by the Democratic House of Delegates but defeated by the Republican Senate.

IN JUSTICE TO Leader, these miseries are those of nearly every State Governor of the mid-1950's, who tried to increase the State services on a market of rising costs. But unlike some of his Democratic colleagues, Govs. Muskie of Maine and Ribicoff of Connecticut, Leader does not have what it takes to carry it off.

Hence the Lawrence coattails. Without them, Leader would be adrift and far in the wake of his Republican rival. As things stand today, Leader seems to be the only Democratic candidate who started the race as a favorite and is now a doubtful winner.

MAYOR LAWRENCE is busy at the game which proved too much for President Eisenhower — the transfer of popularity from himself to a follower. In a press conference in this city, Mr. Lawrence told some of us that he had campaigned in the rural counties and had brought cheers at every mention of Leader's name.

The Mayor committed some macabre and unconscious humor in praising the Governor's mental health program. He told of a lady who accosted him with "God bless Leader." It turned out she was a recent discharge from a mental institution, not a very good example of a love-that-Leader constituent.

CANDIDATE LAWRENCE is a Catholic. If elected, he would be the first of that faith to be Governor. There is some talk within the GOP that the minority sects which abound in rural Pennsylvania will oppose Lawrence on his religion. But this is a gross misreading of the signs. People today have something like a compulsion to disprove and expunge their former records of prejudice.

This, as often written in this place, is one reason why the Southern States have a keen desire to repay to Senator Kennedy the debt they consider owing to the late Al Smith. The same evidence can be found in New England, where Ed Muskie, the laborer's boy, and Abe Ribicoff, the only Jewish Governor in the country at the moment, have so well succeeded.

REPUBLICANS HAVE also tried to shoot Lawrence in the Achilles' heel, located at the point of his career when he served with the administration of Governor George Earle in the 1930's. There is no doubt that this is a sore and vulnerable spot in the Lawrence record, but it all happened too long ago to count for anything today.

Dave Lawrence looks like the next Pennsylvania Governor, and a very good one. He is also the first figure since Jim Farley with the makings of a national political boss.

'More Tenderizer, Somebody'

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

You watch baseball or football, whichever you crave, And, in addition, You learn how to shave.

Had myself an orgy of sports via television over the weekend. And I'm looking at the world through TV eyes.

STARTING FRIDAY night with the fight of the week. Then on Saturday, Sunday and Monday I got all mixed up—home runs and bunts, passes and punts.

World Series Saturday, Sunday and Monday mornings, Cal vs. Washington State Saturday afternoon and the Rams against the 49ers Sunday.

But did I have a clean face after.

IT PRESENTED a puzzle, however. Watching baseball, you get lessons in applying the lather and running the razor over the bumps.

Watching football, you learn which is the best electric razor and how to mow 'em down right at the roots so that you are an old smoothie in a few minutes.

SO, LAST YEAR they told the story of the great non-conformist who used an electric razor while watching the World Series.

This year I tried a switch. I lathered up and shaved with baseball's razor while the commercials on the football games told me different.

WELL, ANYWAY, I get envious every time I watch the baseball games and how quick the fellows in the commercials complete that tedious morning operation.

Years ago the late Merritt Smith (Remember Smitty?) and I used to run contests—see who could shave with the fewest strokes. Sort of a golf game.

Because my face was round and didn't have as many bunkers or traps, I had to give him a five handicap.

IT TOOK US about 70 strokes, counting the little deft touches, to do a clean job.

The heroes in the TV commercials take about six swipes and they are finished. Well, they say that athletic competition is what makes America great.

It also keeps us clean-shaven.

ALTHOUGH I AM a Milwaukee fan (having been born in that city) I was sort of happy that the Yankees won Monday. That means that there'll be a game today and I'll be able to sit in the press box at The Dunes and watch.

One thing about watching a World Series game on TV at The Dunes—you don't have to wait for the commercial to obey that impulse.

FELLOW CAME up to me with a new one this week. "Hear about the mountaineer who put a silencer on his shotgun?" he asked.

So I said no.

And he said:

"His daughter wanted a quiet wedding."

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

Autumn came upon us almost overnight. There is a smoky look in the afternoon skies. A shiver in the evening air. (We are looking over our sweaters for moth holes today.)

Down at the Village football field, the young men practice T-formation. A-dreaming of Saturday afternoons to come. So to school spirit.

AS EVERYONE knows, football games are not won by strategy. But by the rousing patriotism of the rooting section.

"Give 'em the ax, the ax, the ax," we used to implore. And by such witchcraft, the opponent was swept to defeat.

WE WERE LED in this frenzy by young men in white sweaters. And young ladies with pom-poms. They leaped and we holed. And no matter how battered our players, the opposition couldn't intimidate us.

The old school spirit never dies. Only the tune has been changed. And today I called up Miss Effie Holmes, 16, who leads cheers for the high school, for the latest school yell.

I find "Give 'em the ax" is strictly oleopop. The new cheers have a touch of pop. Like this:

"Give me the beat! I said the beat!"

"Don't need no words, don't need no tune—"

"Just give me the beat!"

"It was goin' down the field."

"Just as mad as I could be, 'Lookin' for the cat."

"That stole the ball from me. 'Say Man! A'playin' it cool."

"A-playin' it sweet."

"A-playin' it smooth."

"Say Man! I found that ball. 'I made a touchdown—that's all!"

This is quite a change from the "sis, boom, bah!" that I remember. And I asked Miss Holmes if she wrote it.

She said no. She learned it at Pepperdine College. Pepperdine College is in Los Angeles. And it is a college of nothing but school spirit.

At Pepperdine they teach yell leaders how to yell. And drum majorettes how to cavort. It is the most modern idea I ever heard of.

"DO YOU JUST say it, Miss Holmes?" I asked the young lady cheer leader.

"No. You start by popping your fingers eight times. Then you give the yell."

"Do you know who wrote this fine piece of delirium?"

Miss Holmes said she learned it from a Mr. Herkimer. (I called Pepperdine later. They said Mr. Herkimer had left the faculty. A loss, I would say. I think Pepperdine had better start a playin' it smoother. That's all.)

I ASKED HER to chant it over the phone so I could get it on tape. And I have been playing it back to myself. It grows on you. I think if we had had school spirit colleges in my day, our spirits might have been higher.

I was playing football myself in those days. And was often implored to "give 'em the ax, the ax, the ax."

UNFORTUNATELY, the school did not supply us with axes. Which was what I needed. For I did pretty badly completely unarmed.

I never did find the cat that stole that ball from me. And shortly after, the coach announced that I was cut from the squad. And I went back to writing school paper editorials on the value of school spirit.

That's all.

QUOTES

CHICAGO — Interior decorator Sydney Simon, in warning Jayne Mansfield may have marital trouble because she had the bedrooms and bathroom painted pink:

"Rose and pink colors are the sign of a woman-dominated home. The man may resign himself to the colors, but deep down inside he's simmering all the time."

CHICAGO — Kay Pauley, 19, after leading police on a 117-mile-an-hour chase:

"I just love to drive."

GRIN AND BEAR IT By LICHTY

"We had our Hour of Glory, Professor! . . . Remember how there was some talk of the importance of education before the football season started? . . ."

EARL WILSON:

Can You Dance Inside a Hoop?

NEW YORK — Dancing inside a hula hoop — first two people — then three — then four! — was the chic thing to do when the Hotel Astor unveiled its new grand ballroom. Aly Khan — dancing chic to chic with Eleanor Whitney — would not be inveigled into one of the hoops. But others who liked the Ed-Peggen Fitzgerald idea of one hula hoop to a customer said, "It's great for togetherness, especially when you've four in a hoop!" The Astor's out for some of the Waldorf ballroom business, and Col. Serge Obolensky, the Astor V.P., is introducing hand-kissing to Broadway and the West side.

When you get hand-kissing close to the razzlers and cowhands at Madison Square Garden, you realize how the world's making progress. (You do. Don't you?)

Liz Taylor's prolonged absence from Hollywood haunts makes everybody think that a secret Mexican marriage is planned. Though she moved her children into the Ty Power home in Bel-Air, the staff denies she's there.

The Mike Todd Jr. "Smell-o-vision" picture (a mystery he'll make in Spain) will actually use odors as clues for the audience to solve the mystery. The scent-avision process can produce anything from skunk to perfume and remove it instantly. . . . Copia girls Gloria Curtis and Terry McDermott have restored the club's beauty prestige.

Credo of a gossip columnist: "If we don't hear a good rumor by 10 o'clock every morning, we make up one." . . . George Abbott sure gets around. Although he'll be 70 next June, he's dating stripper Sherry Britton every night in Boston. She plays a bellydancer in his new show, "Drink To Me Only" . . . Bobo Rockefeller's pleased when people call her Barbara. "When I'm 80 and around on a cane, it would be funny," she says, "to still be called Bobo."

Another sign for your desk: "I Love my job (it's the work I hate)." . . . The gaslight club, only two years old here, is booming. It's buying the building of the Nat'l. Republican club next door after election. . . . A B'way producer growled at a critic who'd panned his show, "couldn't you at least have said it was dirty."

MIKE CONNOLLY: TV to Get Silent Pictures

HOLLYWOOD — Paramount is revamping a flock of its old pre-1929 silent pictures by removing the titles and jazzing up the films themselves with talking - and musical soundtracks - for sale to TV. Which means there'll be no end to the late-late films shows (if Warner Bros., Fox, Universal, MGM and the other studios fall in line).

Par's pre-29 silents alone go 'way back to 1917, totalling almost 5,000 feature-length movies. . . . I can see it now: Par's 1937 Moses, Charlton Heston, dubbing the soundtrack voice of the same studio's 1923 Moses, Theodore Roberts, in "The Ten Commandments."

AND WOULD YOU stay up late to see a "tracked version of Mary Pickford's 1917 'Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm.' Lillian Gish and Richard Barthelmess in 1919's 'Broken Blossoms,' Thomas Meighan and Leatrice Joy in 1922's 'Manslaughter'?"

I don't know about you but I would. I'd stay up for them even if they left the titles as is and omitted the soundtracks!

Gloria Pall's phone call for today: "No actress can fool me on her age — I can tell how old a star is by how yellow the newspaper clippings in her scrapbook are!"

WALTER WANGER, who skidded from head of Paramount to quickie producer at Monogram after a series of personal misfortunes, is back on top of the Hollywood heap again. Susan Hayward helped put him there but Walter's own refusal to accept failure, especially after his prison term, is mostly responsible.

Here's how it happened: Susan, remembering how Walter had given her a leg up the ladder in 1947 by starring her in "Smash-Up," agreed to make one for him about the gas-chambered California murderers, Barbara Graham, called "I Want to Live."

THEY JUST FINISHED it and, in addition to putting Susan in the running for the 1958 Oscar neck-and-neck with Audrey Hepburn in "The Nun's Story," Rosalind Russell in "Auntie Mame," Liz Taylor in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," Millie Perkins in "The Diary of Anne Frank," Kim Stanley in "The Goddess" and Ingrid Bergman in "Indiscreet," the picture is so good Fox has signed Wanger away from Hollywood's make-a-fast-buck "independent" group of producers to a term contract.

His first picture at Fox which Susan owes six more pictures before she quits Hollywood for

Don Ameche stopped the show in Boston after taking over the lead in "Goldilocks" from Barry Sullivan. . . . "A bachelor has time on his hands because he doesn't have a wife on his neck" — Monroe Seifer. . . . A father we know is rather discouraged about his teen-age son and church. The kid said, "Dad, do you really dig that jazz?"

Joe E. Lewis is what you call a chain drinker. . . . Opera singer Eleanor Malbin, whose marriage to MCA exec Erwin Brabec was just revealed. Will next reveal her divorce plans! . . . Johnny Mathis was pulled off Garry Moore's opening TV show because he wanted to plug a new song record and the show had other ideas. Gordon McRae, who was hurried into the spot, opens at the Waldorf Oct. 23.

Um boyeeeee! Long range weather forecasts predict another cold winter for Florida. . . . I actually heard it in the next phone booth: "But, Sweetheart, I tried to phone you from the car, but couldn't get the mobile operator." . . . Jorge Guinle took pretty red-haired Joan Tyler down to the Five Spot to hear Thelonious Monk and the real, real jazz. (He stayed for about three aspirins.)

Frank Sinatra's worried about that film with Brigitte Bardot in Europe, according to writer Harry Kurnitz: "He's not sure there's enough Jack Daniels in Europe." . . . Pat Weaver, onetime NBC boss now proudly points out that Nelson Rockefeller's TV speech had more viewers than an NBC program. "But I'm not Nelson's 'Bob Montgomery,'" he insists, "I'm just his friend."

Jim (Maverick) Garner brags that Oklahoma has not only the best football team in the country now but the "two best teams": Oklahoma's first and second teams. . . . Mike Todd used to call Elizabeth Taylor "Elizabeth Schwartzkopf." Well, Elizabeth Schwartzkopf, the sophisticated singer, now has a new record out and she's accompanied by Edwin Fischer. . . . Erin O'Brien, who walked out on Warner's when they wouldn't give her a $250-a-year raise, booked 12 TV shows with Allen, Gobel and Eddie Fisher.

good, will be "Cleopatra" — starring Susan Hayward!

JERRY WALD is fast overtaking David Selznick as Hollywood's champion memo-writer. Jerry, rent Fox publicity chief, Harry Brand, a grand total of 241 long memos on how to publicize "In Love and War" while the Wald epic was shooting. He got no answer to any of them.

The 241st memo, the shortest, asked: "Why haven't you answered my memos?" Brand finally came through with an answer: "I haven't had time—I've been too busy reading them!"

CHANNEL CHATTER — Keenan Wynn is writing a book about how to survive a famous father (and if you don't know it's Ed Wynn, you haven't been watching TV). . . . There haven't been any news stories about Libera's romantic capers these past few months because he's been too busy preparing for his new filmed teleseries.

Vivien Leigh and Ann Todd are bringing Jean Anouilh's London stage hit, "Duel of Angels," to Broadway, following which one of the networks will "spec" the two "angels" in it.

The odd angel-angle being this: Vivien's London co-star was Claire Bloom, who refused to alternate with Vivien in the respective roles of the good and bad angels in the play. It was something Vivien planned from the time Anouilh first submitted the play to her. But Miss Todd has agreed to it, so Ann gets the big Broadway-plus-T V break.

THE NCHIEFTAINS were so anxious to land Fred Astaire for his first spec, they offered him the moon — plus his choice of either a 60-minute or 90-minute period. Most any other entertainer would have been ham enough to grab at the longer segment. Not Fred. He chose the shorter. When I asked why, he said, "I haven't seen many 90-minute shows which couldn't have been cut — and profitably!"

Or, as Beatrice Lillie says, "Never give 'em enough and always leave 'em laughing."

WARNER-TV SIGNED Merry Anders to masquerade as a boy on a Cheyenne segment but had to shift her over to a 77 Sunset Strip segment and replace her in Cheyenne — because her curves kept coming through too prominently to fool even an inanimate camera.

Mickey Rooney's Dec. 12 CBS-Spec may co-star his old MGM playmate, Judy Garland. . . . Dinah Shore got the word from her sponsors: Cut costs. So the ceiling salary for any of Dinah's guests this season is $10,000 per shot, compared with $25,000 last.

Dear Abby . . .

DEAR ABBY: While my husband was in the service he lived with a Japanese woman in Japan off post. He lived like this for almost three years and he also married her in a Church. I wanted to go overseas with him but he told me a Pfc. couldn't take his wife. What I want to know is: "WHY DID HE GET THE GOOD CONDUCT MEDAL?"

ONE OF HIS WIVES

DEAR ONE: Because his marital behavior was better than his marital behavior.

DEAR ABBY: We rent our upstairs apartment to an elderly couple. They don't have their own telephone so every morning she comes down here and asks me to dial for her because she can't see very well. I always do. Then she asks me to listen for her as she can't hear very well, either. I don't mind doing this to help her order her groceries, but she can keep me on the telephone all morning with calls that don't mean a thing. Will you please tell me how I can explain it to her without being disrespectful to the aged?

LADY DOWNSTAIRS

DEAR LADY: Tell her plainly and firmly (as you would a child) that you don't mind helping her with her necessary telephone calls, but the others will have to wait till you have more time. Be gentle. Being dependent in one's old age is no fun.

DEAR ABBY: I read in your column where a man who signed himself "Lonesome Al" was looking for a companion for weekend trips, hunting, fishing, movies or an occasional evening. He said he was not interested in marriage. I think he and I have a lot in common as I am also lonesome and am not interested in marriage. Could you please send me his address?

GEORGE

DEAR GEORGE: Sorry . . . I do not find ladies for gentlemen, gentlemen for ladies, or gentlemen for gentlemen.

DEAR ABBY: Why do men take you out, tell you they had a wonderful evening, take down your telephone number, promise to call you and then you never hear from them again? If you happen to like the man especially, it is terrible to have your hopes built up and then wait only to realize he never intended to. What does a girl do in a case like that?

FORGOTTEN

DEAR FORGOTTEN: If a man takes your number and leads you to believe that he will call — and you don't hear from him again, be grateful. You've got HIS number. A man who doesn't keep his promises is better off out of sight.

DEAR ABBY: You kill me! The sweetest three words in the English language are not "I love you" . . . but "Enclosed I find check." I traded the "I love you" years ago because I found out talk was cheap and the words were phony. The alimony check is good and brings me more comfort.

HAPPIER NOW

DEAR ABBY: I keep getting articles delivered through the mail that I do not want and did not order. It is a nuisance to have to pack them up and take them to the post office to be mailed back. If I didn't order them, how come they are addressed to me and sent to my house and what can I do about it?

PUZZLED

DEAR PUZZLED: If you didn't order the articles you are under NO obligation to acknowledge them. Notify the sender by postcard that you will charge them "storage" if they don't arrange to have the articles picked up. You'll soon be unmolested.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

If you want a collection of Abby's best letters and answers in one book, ask your bookseller to get "DEAR ABBY" for you.

Rennert Building Purchased by William Norrises

CATHEDRAL CITY — The old Rennert Building, a block of six stores on the 68-000 block of Broadway, has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. William Norris, operators of the meat department at the Food Box grocery store.

Mrs. Norris said she and her husband purchased the building from developer George Holstein III and have already launched a renovation project and plans for a new shop.

BUILT BY GEORGE Rennert of Wonder Palms, the building was sold to Holstein earlier this year, Mrs. Norris said.

Mrs. Norris reported that she is planning to open a stationery store at 68-580 Broadway on Oct. 20.

THE STORE, "Norris's House of Cards," will carry school and office supplies, stationery, Hallmark greeting cards, gifts and party favors.

Other units of the Rennert Building are occupied by Cornblatt's Bakery, and offices of Jorgensen's Realty, Attorney Merrill Brown and Dr. J. G. Jones, dentist.

State Youth Group to Meet Here Oct. 18

More than 150 teenager members of the Southern California Youth Association will attend the 1958 Fall Planning Conference at the Palm Springs Youth Center on Saturday, Oct. 18.

The meeting starts at 10 a. m. with registration, followed at 10:30 by a general session. Following a lunch at the Youth Center from 12:30 to 1:30, a training session for panel leaders, recorders and reporters will be held until 3:30 p. m.

Registration costs will be $1 and will include lunches.

Public Property Damage Charge Brings Probation

Gabriel E. Estrada, 750 East Arenas Road, appeared before Judge Eugene Theriau Tuesday on charges of damaging public property and received a 30-day suspended sentence, two years probation, a fine of $50 and was ordered to make restitution.

Estrada, 24, was arrested last week after allegedly he borrowed a tractor to push his car out of the sand, and literally tore up a county road.

Deputy Sheriff Paul Lewis said Estrada tore up at least 90 feet of a new county road near the Crossley Tract.

Honor Society Pins Awarded At Junior High

Honor Society pins were conferred upon 1958 Society members at Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School's first fall assembly today.

Pins were presented to new society members by Vern Howeth, Honor Society advisor, in a program at the new high school auditorium.

The program also included introduction of student candidates for class offices by Principal Warren Linville.

The Hartford (Conn.) Courant, dating back to 1764, is the nation's oldest continuously-published daily newspaper.

"YEA! SENIORS," is the theme for this student party—the first fall picnic for the Palm Springs High School Class of 1959. The entire senior class turned out for the traditional picnic held near the high school pool to make short work of their handsome salutatory cake.

Your Car... And the Law

Can you afford an accident? That is a prima facie ridiculous question. Yet it contains implications that make sense. Actually, nobody can afford accidents. But some can pay for them. Thousands can't.

To those who can't, the law says "you shall not drive."

THE LEGISLATURE has laid down a set of hard-and-fast rules for the driver who causes an accident and can't pay the damages. The name for these rules is the financial responsibility, or Security Following Accident Law.

First enacted in 1947 as a driver control measure, the law was amended in 1953 to include the registration of involved vehicles of owners who are unable, or unwilling, to pay the price of bad driving. It works like this:

If, while operating a motor vehicle of any kind, you are involved in an accident where there is loss of life, bodily injury or property damage in excess of $100, you must report the accident within 15 days to the State Department of Motor Vehicles.

"YOU" IN THIS case means each of the parties to the accident, irrespective of who was to blame. The Department of Motor Vehicles does not assess damages, nor does it presume to judge who was at fault. Only the courts may decide that.

Let's say you are in a collision, and the driver of the other car claims property damage of $500. In the broadest sense, you then become a defendant driver, and under the law you must prove your ability to pay such damages.

THERE ARE SIX ways in which to establish that proof: Through liability insurance, release from liability by the other driver, a court judgment in your favor, a settlement agreement between yourself and the other party, payment of the damages by the other party's insurance company, or by depositing cash security with DMV.

DMV in 1957 received a total of 481,158 damage and injury accident reports, of which 88.3 per cent were from drivers adequately covered by insurance. Many elect, or were required, to post cash security to cover claims against them. The amount of these deposits which are received by DMV and held in trust by the State Treasurer, amounted to $1,075,536.

But there were 24,000 drivers who failed to establish proof of any kind of their ability to pay accident damages, and so their licenses were suspended, and remained suspended for at least a year.

Car Clouters Active Again

Car clouters were at work in Palm Springs again last night. This time, the midnight auto suppliers bagged three wheels and tires of parked cars, police reported.

Two wheels and tires were taken from autos at Palm Springs Lincoln-Mercury and one was pulled from a car owned by Walter Gaumann, of the El Mirador Hotel.

Youngs Return From Idyllwild

PALM DESERT—Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Young and Rosamund Repass returned this week to their home on Paintbrush Street, after a summer at their mountain cabin in Pinyon Flats.

Mr. Young is the former owner of Young's Shoe Mart in Cathedral City and is associated with John Sharp Realty in Palm Desert.

Chemical Meeting

CHICAGO—(UPI)—The American Chemical Society will hold its 134th national meeting here Sept. 7 to 12 with more than 14,000 chemists and chemical engineers from all over the U.S. and several foreign countries expected to attend.

Dr. Clifford F. Rassweiler, president of the Society, said the main topics for discussion will be new developments in science education, advances in the control of air pollution and progress in the chemical attack of cancer.

Backstrand Asks Efficiency Study, Not Search for Taxes

Instead of State Legislative committees now seeking out possibilities for new taxes, Assemblyman L. M. "Lee" Backstrand of Riverside County this week called upon Luther H. Lincoln, Speaker of the Assembly, to assign an appropriate committee the task of "searching for places where money could be saved."

Assemblyman Backstrand was one of the leaders of the "economy bloc" at the last legislative budget session in Sacramento. He helped hold the line on increases in the state budget and refused to vote for new expenditures which could not be covered by existing revenues.

In referring to legislative interim committees and citizens' state's tax program in an effort to seek out possibilities of new taxes, Backstrand wrote this week in a letter to Speaker Lincoln:

"It seems to me that these committees are working on the wrong end of this entire tax situation—that they should be searching for places where money could be saved. I feel that this possibility of saving money should be given first priority. For example, the work of existing state departments might be consolidated, thus effecting an economy.

"I strongly urge you, as Speaker of the Assembly, to allot the task of cutting down the state budget, through greater efficiency, to an appropriate Interim Committee."

City of Hope Chapter Commences Project Plans

The year's projects were outlined and bylaws approved when board members of the Palm Springs Chapter of City of Hope met for the first time this season at the home of their president, Fae Brezin.

Mrs. Pearl Hess, chairman of the by-laws committee presented the bylaws for board approval and announced they would also be presented to the general membership at the first meeting, which will be held Monday evening, October 13, at the Jewish Community Center. An innovation for the group this year will be evening meetings, due to the opening of membership to the men of the community. Also planned for this first meeting is a report on the Pacific Coast Conference, held this past summer. The program will be both entertaining and educational and is being planned by the new program chairman, Dr. Marion E. Zonniss, local psychiatrist.

Future projects for the group will include a Membership Tea in October and a Gourmet Sale in November. The tea will be the first afternoon affair of the season and will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 22, in the gardens of La Serena Hotel, under the chairmanship of Raye Gholstin. The Gourmet Sale will feature food specialties and gourmet items contributed by members. This sale will be held just prior to Thanksgiving, so Villagers may augment their Thanksgiving dinners with delicacies.

The major project of the year for the Palm Springs Chapter will be an unusual Hawaiian party to be held in January, under the direction of Betty Jacobs, ways and means chairman. Mrs. Jacobs and members of her committee are going all out to make this Hawaiian party one of the outstanding events of the social season in Palm Springs. The highlight of the evening will be the giving away of an all expense trip for two to Hawaii.

Members of the board who will serve for this coming year, in addition to President Fae Brezin, are: Betty Jacobs, ways and means vice president; Raye Gholstin, membership vice president; Marion Zonniss, program vice president; Dorothy Rosen, recording secretary; Dorothy Slatin, corresponding secretary; Geraldine Needleman, financial secretary; Fay Brown, treasurer; Gene Burten, publicity; Blanche Katz, telephone chairman; Pauline Stone, tribute chairman; Edythe Bogard and Sophie Goodman, banks chairman; Dorothy Jeffe and Rose Sherman, hostesses; Rose Powell, bulletin chairman; Irene Litoff, sunshine chairman; Pearl Hess, by-laws chairman; Jean Davis, record chairman; Rose Holtzman, secretary of the board; and trustees, Kate Neishuler, Betty Nimitz, Marian Schwartz, Hilda Maraniss, Sue Grossman and Rose Levinson.

Women's Club Board Receives Jamaica Hats

Handmade hats from Jamaica were given to all board members of the Palm Springs Woman's Club at its first meeting held October 5th at the clubhouse. Mrs. Herbert Burns, club president, has just returned from a trip to Jamaica and chose these unusual hats for her board, with no two hats alike in design or color. Everyone was given a number and could choose her hat according to number.

Plans for all the activities for the club year were enthusiastically arranged. The first event is a beautiful luncheon to be given at El Mirador Hotel. This luncheon will be open to the public and will be under the leadership of Mrs. Bow Herbert and Mrs. H. George Smith.

The Christmas Carousel December 8th is another important date for the Palm Springs Woman's Club. Mrs. Howard H. Matthews who is in charge of this event is having a special meeting of all her chairmen October 7 at her home on Driftwood Drive. The Carousel will be the big event of the year and club members have been working during the summer months to make this affair a big success. The funds for scholarships given by the club each year are raised by these projects so each member of the club is working toward the goal of doing even more for the young students in this community in 1959.

Double Event Is Planned As Surprise Party

A double event, a shower and a birthday party, was held Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Marvin Isbel, and honored her sister-in-law Mrs. Robert Robertson. The party was arranged as a surprise and 26 women were there to wish her happy birthday and watch the mother-to-be open the many gifts.

Tiny booties decorated the cake which was presented by Mrs. Robert Bullock of Redlands, a family friend. A matching decor of pink and blue streamers made an attractive setting. Games were played and refreshments of punch cake and candies were served.

Guests present were: Mesdames Jack Copass, James Blackstone Jr., Carr Larson, Wanda Thompson, Don Bachtell, Ted Greene, Mabelle Ostberg, Marvin Logan, Roy Davis, D. D. Miami Visitor Ends Stay Here

Mrs. W. J. Skrak of Miami, is returning home by way of Mexico City, following a ten day visit in Palm Springs with the Jack Copass family of South Calle Marcus.

Lt. Commander W. J. Skrak and Lt. Commander Jack Copass USN (Ret.) served together on Guadalcanal and this was Mrs. Skrak's first visit in Palm Springs since she was here 14 years ago. She expressed amazement at the phenomenal growth and beauty of Palm Springs today.

Coming here from the Hawaiian Islands, she found herself in a whirl of sightseeing trips and social engagements. Her hostess honored her at a luncheon at Town and Country, and Mr. Ray Lusby arranged a breakfast in her honor at Uncle John's Pancake House. Mrs. James Scott gave an Oriental Tea for the visitor.

There are about 2,500 museums in the U.S. today, compared with approximately 600 in 1931.

The Arm Goes Out For History

By OSCAR FRALEY

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — The "arm" with a man attached to it goes out in an attempt to hurl World Series history today, admitting that no matter how many times you work in the classic "it's always more than just an other ball game."

"That's Warren Spahn's description both of himself and the annual post-season baseball classic. "Lots of times I feel that I'm just an arm with me attached to it," he mused when he got word that he would face the New York Yankees today in a game in which he could sweep the Milwaukee Braves to their second straight world championship.

"THAT THOUGHT has made me feel pretty humble at times," he added. "And you can really feel small when you walk out there in the World Series. I don't care what anybody says. You can't ever put this in the category of 'just another ball game.'"

Constantly, despite his veteran status after pitching in the 1948 and 1957 series, and in winning two games this time, Spahn admits that he never can shake the pressing thought that "this is the World Series."

"You feel it when you come in the park, while you're dressing and when you're warming up or sitting on the bench between innings," he asserted. "It's always there, even if you push it into the back of your mind while you're pitching."

SPAHN IS GOING to the post with only two days of rest, a frightful risk for a man who, despite his record of being a 20-game winner for nine seasons, has to be going down the other side of the baseball hill at the age of 37.

In this series, he opened last Wednesday with a 4-3 victory in 10 innings. The second time he was even better, with a 3-0 two-hitter. But, you might ask, how long can this go on?

"I hope for at least one more day," he grins. "It was cold that first day and my arm was sore afterwards. But in winning Sunday, it was warmer and my arm suffered no after-effects. I feel that I'm ready."

HIGH TEAM SERIES was registered by Plaza Motors, 2788; Woodcraft, second, 2657; Rainbow Room third, 2619.

Plaza Motors also rolled the two high team games, 992 and 987. Third high team game was rolled by Logan Sons, 934.

George Kuffner, Plaza Motors, had the high individual series with 577; Lou Folk, Woodcraft, second, 565, and Bob Blauvelt, Hoams Pools, 550.

INDIVIDUAL HIGH game was rolled by Fred Goetz, Plaza Motors, 220. Kuffner was second with 212 and Roy Grow, Logan Sons, third with 204.

Blauvelt's average of 184 was high for six games. Right behind him was Folk with 183. Kuffner's 178 was third high average to date.

FRANCHISE LEAGUE

Two teams were tied for the top at the end of the second week of competition in the Franchise League at Palm Springs Bowling Academy. Press Construction Company and Anita's Candy Show quintets having equal 8-0 records. But the Press team had a total pinfall of 5311 against the Candy Shop's 4821.

Tied in the third spot were The Barn and J & S Paving, at 4-4. The Barn had a total pinfall of 5170 and J & S, 4611.

Deadlocked for last place were Lincoln Mercury, 0-8, and 4421 pins and Union Ice Company, 0-8 and 4-77 pins.

HIGH TEAM SERIES, 3013, was rolled by the Press team with The Barn, 2819 second and Anita's third, 2624.

Press Construction also had the high team games, 1042 and 1025. The Barn's 977 was third.

Bob Blauvelt, Press Construction, rolled 615 for high individual series honor and also had the two high games, 212 and 211.

John Marinko, of The Barn, was third for high series honors with 531 and Lou Folk, Press, third high game, 205.

BLAUVELT TOPPED the averages in the Franchise League too, with a total of 1130 pins tallied for 188 per game.

Second-high pinfall for R. Grow of The Barn, 1659 and 176 average and third to W. Nebling of Press Construction who rolled in three games for 517 total pins and a 172 average.

Haney Goes for Broke with Spahn

Stengel Counters with Ford

BULLETIN

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Manager Casey Stengel, holding up his decision until almost game time, named Whitey Ford to pitch for the New York Yankees if weather permits today's sixth World Series game.

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Fred Haney, one of the most conservative managers in baseball, gambled on an aging pitcher with only two days rest to wrap up the World Series today against the New York Yankees.

Rain early today threatened to wash out the game. He called on 37-year-old southpaw Warren Spahn, who beat the Yankees 4-3 in 10 innings in the first game, and 3-0 with a brilliant two-hit shut-out in the fourth game, to try and close it out.

Manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees, facing sudden death because his club was trailing the Braves three games to two, wouldn't come out and name his starter.

He was, he said, "toying with a lot of guys."

THE TOP ONE seemed to be southpaw Whitey Ford, who has started against Spahn twice in this series.

Then the manager with his back to the wall admitted he "don't know what I'm going to do."

"That big guy Don Larsen might be ready, too," he pointed out.

"I'm ready if he, Stengel, wants me," Larsen declared. But he didn't seem to be anxious.

Stengel, observing "there's no tomorrow unless we win today," also was considering Duren, Art Ditmar and even Bobby Shantz, the pint-sized left hander who is nursing a bruised finger on his pitching hand.

HANEY, STILL REFUSING to concede his National League champions, were in the driver's seat, announced his choice of Spahn after a dressing room meeting.

"I asked Warren if he thought he could close it out for us on Wednesday," Haney disclosed. "And he told me, 'I'd sure like to try.' So he's going for us."

Haney, who doesn't talk too freely in printable language, answered, "What the hell," when a baseball writer asked him who he might start in a seventh game, should Spahn be beaten.

"I'll worry about that if the time comes," he added. "But I'll say this—the other 10 pitchers on my staff behind Spahn will be out in the bullpen."

The guessing was that Haney would go with Burdette of a seventh game is necessary while Stengel would call on bullet Bob Turley, who hurled a five-hitter at the Braves on Monday to bring the series back here.

Saxton Has Trouble

HOLYOKE, Mass. (UPI) — Former welterweight champ Johnny Saxton of New York City today appeared to have a long way to go in his comeback bid to regain the crown.

Fighting Tuesday night for the first time in nearly two years, Johnny squeezed out a split decision 10-round victory over Barry Allison.

Sime to Lend His Speed to Duke's Gridiron Squad

DURHAM, N. C. — (UPI) — Dave Sime, the world's fastest human in the 100-year dash, will roam the gridiron as a "lonesome" end for Duke's Blue Devils against Baylor here Saturday.

Sime, holder of the world's record in several dash events, was an all-state halfback in high school days at Fairlawn, N. J. Now a medical student with one year of athletic eligibility left, he used to show up at Duke's football practices to keep in shape—catching passes and kicking the football.

So when Duke unveiled its "lonesome" end play last week against Illinois, it occurred to Murray that the best attribute for such a player would be speed.

"And who is speedier than Sime? In addition—he's a deft passer-catcher and, Murray says, "probably the best kicker on our team."

Murray persuaded Sime to come out for football. He reported for practice for the first time late Tuesday afternoon.

Former Indians Pace Sultan Win

Coachella Valley Athletic Club's semi-pro eleven, the Sultans, victorious in their first game, were in negotiation with the Camp Pendleton Marine eleven today, seeking a date for next Sunday in the Indo Bowl. The Sultans have an open date Sunday.

In their first game last Sunday two former Palm Springs High School Indians paced them to a 27-0 win over the Seal Beach Seals.

Joe Chaisson heaved one TD pass and plunged for another. Charley Black accounted for a third touchdown of the CV team's four with a ramble up the middle.

got underway in the World Amateur team championship.

The Yanks and Britain were regarded as co-favorites for this brand new competition for the Eisenhower Cup, which attracted teams from 29 countries.

Under the special tournament rules adopted by the World Amateur Golf Council, the championship is a 72-hole medal play affair. Each team is permitted to total the scores of its three leading players at the end of each 18-hole round. The cup will be awarded to the team with the lowest aggregate score at the conclusion of Saturday's final round.

Charley Coe of Oklahoma City, Okla., the current U. S. amateur king, tops the Yank's lineup. Other members of the team are long ball hitting Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N. C., Bill Hyndman III of Philadelphia, and Dr. Frank Taylor of Pomona, Calif.

Irish Favored by One Over Army In Clash Saturday

NEW YORK — (UPI) — After studying their form charts for several days, the oddsmakers today established Notre Dame as a one-point favorite over Army in their titanic clash at South Bend Saturday.

Both teams are off to fast starts this year, the Irish turning back Indiana and Southern Methodist in their first two games while Army defeated South Carolina and Penn State. In this week's UPI ratings, Notre Dame was ranked third and the Cadets were fourth.

Auburn, top-ranked team in the nation, is a seven-point choice to continue its unbeaten string against Kentucky in a Southeastern Conference meeting Saturday night at Lexington, Ky.; and Ohio State is a seven-point pick over Illinois in the nationally televised contest at Champagne, Ill.

Top intersectional games of the day find Michigan ruling by 5 points over Navy at Ann Arbor, Mich.; Michigan State a 12-point pick against Pittsburgh.

MICKEY WOULD LIKE TO PITCH IN THIRD SERIES GAME TODAY

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Mickey Mantle came up with a "dark horse" candidate for the Yankees starting pitcher today.

Mantle said, "I know who I'd pitch if I were the manager. When asked who, the Yankee center fielder said:

"Me."

Mantle throws an excellent knuckleball and is reported to be faster than a number of regular pitchers.

Braves Remain 3 to 1 in Series

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — The Yankees were 6-5 favorites to win today's sixth game of the World Series. However, the Braves, holding a 3-2 lead in victories, remained 3-1 favorites to win the series.

The oddsmakers announced various "conditional" prices on the sixth game, depending on Casey Stengel's pitching nomination.

Council to Study Proposed Improvements for Streets

Proposed capital improvements to Palm Springs streets have been studied by the City Council for a week now prior to the scheduled discussion of them tonight.

Prepared by Director of Public Works Frank Hamerschlag, it lists a total of $145,950 of proposed and desirable capital improvements, and specifically calls for the expenditure of $64,750 in street improvements during fiscal 1958-59. The city has budgeted $70,000 for street improvements this year.

ACCORDING TO THE Public Works Director, the most important projects to be considered include the widening of Indian Avenue at the mineral baths at an estimated cost of $4,600; Indian Avenue at Paseo El Mirador extended in front of the Kahn property, $800; Indian Avenue at Baristo, revamp drainage and cap pavement, $800; new curb at Ramon Road and Cerritos Drive, $1,700; paving of Civic Drive and El Cielo at Police Station to Ramon Road, $11,650; install curbs, walks and resurface from Arenas to Tahquitz using property owners' contributions of $2,000, $3,500.

Proposed for re-allocation will be $4,500 for the construction of curb returns along Ramon Road at Section 19—the Desert and Veterans Tracts, a project which was not done last year; Vista Chino, Palm Canyon to Indian Avenue, $20,000; Vista Chino from Indian to Sunrise Way, $50,700 and using $36,000 of gas tax funds, capital outlay by the city, $14,700.

A TOTAL OF $2,500 has been requested for assessment district contributions from the budgeted funds, and includes work to be done on Chuckwalla, Pasatiempo, Vista Oro, Paseo Doroto, and miscellaneous. These projects would total $64,750.

Under desirable capital improvements, Hamerschlag lists $61,000 worth of projects not calling for gas tax expenditures. Included in this list are $10,000 worth of curbs on North Palm Canyon Drive; a $25,000 expenditure for widening Tamarisk from Indian Avenue to Vista Chino; and the widening to 30 feet of Indian Avenue from Vista Chino to the north city limits at a cost of $26,000.

350 Attend Homecoming Dinner at PD

PALM DESERT — Community enthusiasm raced as high as the harvest moon Friday evening at the Shadow Mountain Club, where more than 350 members and friends of the Chamber of Commerce gaily greeted old-timers and welcomed newcomers, at the second annual Homecoming Dinner.

Dinner and dancing to the music of the Kenny "B" trio launched the evening's festivities, which were emceed by Lou Kuehner, manager of the chamber, and followed by a short, introductory welcome speech by Phil Franklin, chamber president, who emphasized the advantages of unity and cooperation in the area.

Entertainment highlights included a pantomime by Betty Crocker, "Shopping for a Husband," a rendition of the popular past-favorite, "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," by the talented and well known "Mrs. Bedford," and an hilarious comic opera skit from the Palm Desert Follies, featuring Ella Lu Kapp, Dick Kite and Dick Sayles, with piano accompaniment by Hal Kapp.

The club was decorated with multi-colored pennants, each inscribed with the name of a chamber member, and a raffle bag with prizes donated by Palm Desert merchants was distributed by Jim Griffin, chamber vice president.

Area Employment Director Explains Reasons for No Office in This City

John F. Rood, Southern Area Manager for the California Department of Employment, reported today that Palm Springs, under the present circumstances, has no possibility of getting a branch office.

In a letter to Robert W. Peterson, city manager of Palm Springs, Rood pointed out that a check of the number of claimants in July, showed that in the area from Palm Desert to Blythe there were 810, and from the area of Palm Springs and west there were 654.

ROOD POINTED out that each of the areas was showing the same rate of population growth. He said that the problem which has been raised by the City of Palm Springs confronts the department in many other communities where there is no branch office, but they cannot put in a local office because funds budgeted to them does not allow them to do so.

Location of the offices is set by standards set by the Federal government because administration funds are derived from the government.

"BECAUSE THE situation is common," wrote Rood, "in many areas throughout the state, we have had to establish certain standards concerning the distance, traveling time and travel cost, which would be considered reasonable for applicants and claimants to travel to our office.

"Generally speaking, where the distance is less than 25 miles and where public transportation is available at a cost not exceeding $3 per round trip, our standards do not provide for the establishment of an office. For these reasons, we are not in a position to open an office in Palm Springs."

IN HIS LETTER Rood went on to say that they "have carefully reviewed scheduling practices for claimants who live in the area served by the Indio office, to insure that all scheduling is done at times most convenient for the people. As you know (he told the council), we have provided special services for Palm Springs residents, including local cashing of benefit checks, and individual scheduling when requested by the claimant."

"Food Maintains Life and Stimulants Embellish It." And we have the best of both for you to choose from.

Cooking has been made so simple nowadays through the great assortment of frozen foods that are available. Of course, some of these foods are much better than others and we have tried to carry only the best.

How about serving a frozen seafood dinner? My suggestions are as follows: first an Appetizer of a fine chilled dry sherry. Then Getchen Grant's wonderful frozen assorted Hors D'Oeuvres. Next frozen clam chowder. After the chowder a fresh frozen Maine lobster, split, cleaned and ready for the broiler. With the lobster serve frozen French fried potatoes and frozen asparagus tips with Hollandaise. For dessert serve a Mary Holmstrom homemade delicious frozen fresh fruit pie from her fine assortment. With this dinner a good Beaulieu Vineyard chablis, sauterne or Heineken's beer is in order. To wind up this repast serve a good brandy or liqueur and a demi-lassé—the only things not frozen.

You can make a great reputation as a cook among your friends —if they don't find you out. You will find this a delicious dinner and so easy to prepare. It will appeal to Yankees, I know. Come in and let our Manager, Robert Barr, help you select some of our distinctive lines. Meet Harold Lewin, head of the meat department and look over the fine products he handles, including the frozen lobster. Meet Morris Sale in charge of wines and liquors and get his suggestions. Meet Bud Cody who knows all about vegetables, both fresh and frozen.
